RICHMOND, CAL., FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1915. NUMBER 158

Leslie Holsclaw Killed in Accident

HALL SITES NOW CHIEF TOPIC

Many Suggestions Made; To Hold Meeting in Lincoln School Tomorrow Night to Suggest That Location.

A number of citizens will meet tomorrow evening in the Tenth street school with the school board for the purpose of discussing the advisability of obtaining the school building for the City Hall.

Daniel Barton is one of the leaders of the movement. All those interested in the move are requested to attend. It is proposed to build a new school if the Tenth street school is chosen for the City Hall.

A site on Nevin, between Ninth and Tenth streets; the Santa Fe field, and the present site of the postoffice are also being discussed as possible sites.

John Nicholl said last night that he had been approached by a representative of the Wall interests and requested to "lay down" and let his offer expire. This Nicholl refused to do, saying in explanation:

"Why should I quit with four aces?"

DISCUSS PLANS FOR RICHMOND DAY AT THE FAIR

Plans for boosting, advertising, holding and financing the big Richmond day celebration at the Exposition, Saturday, August 7, were exhaustively discussed at the meeting in the Lincoln auditorium last night. From the many novel plans being proposed, the day's program promises to be interesting and exciting from the opening to the closing of the grounds.

VISIT LIBERTY BELL.

One of the latest plans proposed by the program committee is to have an immense parade of the Richmond school children to the Pennsylvania building, where they will sing patriotic songs, pay reverence to the nation's most honored relic, and be addressed by some noted orator on its history and significance. This plan was suggested by Mrs. J. C. Stokes, who volunteered to train the children in the open air singing. Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms will co-operate in the plan and hopes to make it quite a feature of the day.

TAG DAY.

It was also planned to hold a tag day early next week, at which time tags or badges will be sold by scores of Richmond's prettiest, for the benefit of the day's coffers.

Louis Farrell was made chairman of all arrangements for the day, and it is said that he has a good eye for picking the members of the suffragette army. The tags will probably be printed with the city's official seal, which bears the date of August 7, 1905, as the date of incorporation, and in honor of which the tenth anniversary celebration is being held.

WHIST PARTY.

Another plan proposed for the raising of money was the holding of a big whist party on the evening of some night early next week. Either Fraternal Hall, the Elks Club, the Richmond Club, or East Shore Park will be secured for the holding of the big affair. Mrs. C. S. Gibson was appointed to head the committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Lee Adams, Mrs. Otto Ludewig, Mrs. Fred Schram, Mrs. C. F. Donnelly and Mrs. J. G. Gerlach.

BIG PARADE FLOATS.

To secure big parade floats representing the big industrial plants of the city, a committee, headed by Paul Edwards and Dr. C. L. Abbott, was appointed. They will interview the companies and try to secure floats similar to the float used by Pittsburg in the Contra Costa day parade, replete with smoke stacks, smoke and clang of steel.

DECORATE BOOTH.

High school girls will be asked to secure flowers for the decorating of the Richmond booth in the California building. More members were appointed to the decoration committee and Mrs. J. C. Stokes Mrs. T. P. Jacobs, T. T. Cramer and Mrs. P. C. and Helen Campbell were added to the program committee

AUGMENT FINANCE COMMITTEE.

O. R. Ludewig, C. J. Crary, C. S. Downing and W. L. Ballenger were appointed to assist in solving the big problem of finances for the day's festivities.

To visit the various fraternal orders of the city and get them in line, R. L. Fernald, John Gregory, J. G. Gerlach, C. F. Donnelly and Dr. C. L. Abbott were named on a committee.

Transportation of schoool children and the general public was entrusted to W. T. Helms, Traffic Manager Brown and G. Wall.

ADVERTISING FEATURES.

An immense banner—"Richmond Day; Richmond Is Ten Years Old Today"—will be painted and will be hung on the Key Route's special Exposition ferry boat during the day, and window hangers for the street cars will be provided by the S. F. & O. T. railways. It is also planned to advertise the day at the baseball game at Martinez Sunday.

ANOTHER MEETING.

To further plans for the day's arrangements, another meeting will be held in the Lincoln auditorium Tuesday night, following the brief Board of Equalization meeting of the city council. The meeting will be called at 8:30.

Reports from the working committee will be heard at that meeting, and dates set for tag day and for the whist party, in the event they will be held.

Mother Hopes for Pardon of Her Son

The following letter has been received by Mrs. A. L. Johnson, mother of Kenneth Johnson, who is serving a sentence in San Quentin prison:

Dear Madam: I was surprised to learn that you had been advised that the Governor refused to do anything for your boy. I can give you no assurance that he will do anything, but I feel certain that he has at no time stated a refusal. I am, at his direction, personally making an investigation of the case at this time. It is utterly impossible for me to state any results.

Yours very truly,
MARTIN C. MADSEN,
Executive Secretary.

Mrs. Johnson is bravely continuing her fight to obtain freedom for her boy. Petitions that she has circulated have been signed by no less than 800 residents of Richmond.

After the Johnson boy's arrest he was offered probation if he would plead guilty. He refused, emphatically declaring his innocence.

Mrs. Johnson is confident that her boy will be pardoned.

YEOMEN SOCIAL GALA FUNCTION

Olive Homestead, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, held another one of their delightful open meetings last night in Pythian Castle.

A fine musical program was rendered.

The affair was a "box social" and each lady brought a box luncheon for two.

MOOSE TO BE HOSTS THURSDAY

The Loyal Order of Moose completed plans last night for the smoker and entertainment next Thursday night in their lodge rooms, when they will entertain more than 200 visitors from Oakland. E. Forwick has charge of the refreshments and entertainment.

PLANS ENTRY IN STATE OF WARSAW

London Dispatches, Probably Censored, Tells of Elaborate Arrangements for the Entry of the Kaiser.

LONDON, July 29.—The capture of Warsaw naturally would be made the Germany, and it is reported that Emperor William has arranged to make a state entry into the city, accompanied by the Empress. The Empress has been on a visit to Field Marshal von Hindenburg's headquarters at Allstein, East Prussia, and left yesterday with Crown Princess Cecelia for Niedenburg, which is across the Polish border.

In the meantime fighting of the greatest intensity continues around the Polish triangle.

PETROGRAD, July 29.—The Russian defense of Warsaw has stiffened and the German advance on the Narew front has been checked, according to a supplementary statement issued from the war office tonight.

Near Novgoron attempts of the Germans to cross the Narew river hane been repulsed with heavy losses.

The statement also said the Slav army had forced Austro-Germans from several villages they had occupied between the Bug and Vieprs rivers.

The next 48 hours will decide the fate of Warsaw.

LONDON, July 29.—German submarines struck again and struck swiftly today, on the fifth day of the greatest sustained raid.

The total undersea war loss since Sunday was raised to 42 ships by six more singings.

Twenty-four men and several women were killed and 26 men are missing.

Eleven men and possibly five women were lost when the Finnish steamer Leon was sunk in the Baltic Sea. The Finnish passenger steamer Urania also was sunk in the Baltic by a mine, all aboard being saved.

The Grimsby trawler Dovey was torpedoed in the North Sea with the loss of the crew of nine.

The 26 missing men were among the crew of the Glasgow steamer Mangara, sunk off Lowestoft.

Four of a crew of 26 were lost when a diver sank the 2000 ton Belgian steamer Princess Marie Jose.

A Copenhagen dispatch says the Swedish brig Fortuna was sunk in the North Sea today, the crew landing at Cuxhaven.

ONE SHOE OFF AND ONE ON, POLICE CATCH CUNNING MISTER JOHN

Whether he desired to play a part in the Mother Goose rhyme, "One shoe on and one shoe off," or whether he committed his first theft to aid a one-legged friend, is the question that is puzzling Desk Sergeant Jack McGowan of the local police force about John Gomez, a recent arrival from war torn Mexico City.

Suffice it to say that John yesterday did a-shopping go. He entered the Popular store on Washington avenue on the west side and after buying a few hair pins, a curling iron etc., he paid for his small purchases and lingered. A sample shoe, on display on top of a shoe case, attracted his sticky fingers and with mate piece of footgear clinging to his hand he scurried out the entrance and down the street.

Proprietor Horvitz scurried to the police station, and Inspector Phillips scurried to the scene.

It was not long until Phillips returned with John, but no shoe, the evidence, as it were. John was booked and Phillips returned to the scenery along the line of retreat, and soon found the shoe, on display in a lot, where it had been thrown.

And now John thinks war torn Mexico City wasn't so bad after all.

Ladies Serve Tea Attired in Jap Dress

Forty-five ladies were present at the Japanese tea given by the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Andrews. Japanese tea and wafers were served by the committee in charge, all of the members of which were dressed in Japanese costume. Another novel feature of the thoroughly enjoyable afternoon was that the guests sat on the floor, Japanese fashion, when the tea was served.

WORK FOR SCHOOL BONDS PASSAGE

PITTSBURG, July 29.—With but eight days to go before the voters decide the question of whether or not they favor the $10,000 grammar school bonds, the school board is beginning the campaign to have the issue passed.

The sentiment seems to be strongly in favor of the bonds and though a two-thirds majority is necessary to carry, it is believed that it will be an overwhelming majority which will be given them.

The board has already expended $60,000 on the magnificent school and expects to use $14,000 of the school money this year to improve it. The $10,000 is needed to complete the upper story.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISS IRWIN

A pretty farewell party in honor of Miss Mabel Irwin, who for the past seven months has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. Hailes, 1304 Barrett avenue, was given at the Hailes home last evening by scores of friends she has made in the Wesley Methodist church during her stay here. Miss Irwin leaves for her home in Stubenville, O., Sunday morning.

The evening was spent in games, music and delightful refreshments were served by the hosts late in the evening.

Those present were Misses Bess and Edith Brouse, Miss Olive Conn, Miss Thelma Milnes, Miss Lillian Porter, Miss Sybil Rice, Miss Carrie Oakley, Miss Laura Oakley, Miss Stella Shoemaker, Miss Ada Pearce, Miss Minnie Smith, Miss Annie Smith, Miss Kathelyn Frimere, Miss Eva Hailes and Miss Mabel Irwin, and William Hoskings, Emerson and Harold Garrard, Edward Cockran, Foster Conn, R. M. Washburn, Doran Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peatson, Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver Young and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. Hailes.

REPORT IS MADE

Reports of much work done and a diminished treasury were made at the meeting of the Social Service Bureau last night in the Presbyterian church.

Very little is left in the treasury and the supply of clothes is also very low.

To continue the work, an appeal is to be made to the public in the near future. A committee—D. J. Hall, Charles Johnson and P. E. Petersen—was also appointed last night to wait upon the city council and petition for an appropriation.

Councilman Lane and George C. Henley were elected to fill the vacancies on the board of directors. They succeed Mrs. Whalen and J. H. Plate.

Mrs. C. S. Gibson, general chairman of the east side committee, reported that 14 families have been aided since the bureau's last meeting.

Funds are needed urgently and it is hoped that both the appeal to the public and the council will bring results.

Mrs. Paul Droullard of Richmond avenue court, called at the police station yesterday and left a photograph and description of her brother, Benjamin Llamas of Mexico City, 19, who left Los Angeles July 19, bound for Richmond, and has not been seen since. Llamas cannot talk English and Mrs. Droullard is greatly worried for his safety. For several months she has heard no word from her father, who lives near Mexico City.

BECKER DIES IN CHAIR TODAY

Wife, Shortly Before Midnight, Brings News of Failure of Last Stand for Life.

OSSING, N. Y., July 29.—Mrs. Becker arrived at Sing Sing by auto at 11:30 p. m. and went at once to her husband's cell when she told him of the unsuccessful attempt to obtain clemency from the governor.

Although W. Bourke Cockran and Martin T. Manton, attorneys for Charles Becker, sentenced to die tomorrow for instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, abandoned all hope of securing a stay of execution, they held a conference. Apparently nothing was found that would help the case.

BAND CONCERT AT THE POINT THIS EVENING

The Richmond Concert Band rehearsed in Musicians' Hall last night for the concert to be given on the west side tonight.

Many west side people, not knowing that the band will hereafter give concerts on Friday nights instead of Thursday, last night gathered at the band stand and waited in vain for the musicians.

This evening the concert will be given. A very attractive program has been arranged.

A feature of the program will be "My Creole Sue," song for cornet, quartette echo. Near the close of the selection, the strains of the cornet will be echoed by four of the musicians who, starting at a considerable distance from the band stand, will gradually come nearer the stand.

The program:

March, "Spirit of Liberty" (Sousa); overture, "Berlin in Joy and Sorrow" (Conradi); waltz, "Wedding of the Winds" (Hall); "My Creole Sue" (Davis); Nordische Klange Fantasie (Keester); selection, "Army Chaplain" (Wittocker); march, "Dixie" (Gustafson).

BADLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Robert Ingram, 431 Stannage street, Berkeley, district manager of the Massachusetts Insurance and Bonding Company, was severely injured Wednesday evening on Macdonald avenue, near the Nicholl farm, when the automobile in which he was riding struck a large stone. The stearing gear was torn from his hands and he was flung through the wind shield when the machine crashed against a telephone pole. He was taken to the office of Dr. Hall Vestal and treated for numerous cuts about the face, shoulders and arms. He was then taken in an ambulance to his home in Berkeley.

MODERN DANCES TO BE SHOWN AT LOCAL CLUB

The latest dances will be demonstrated by Madame Forman-Emric, teacher of the Richmond Club dancing class, at the club house on Nevin this evening. Among the dances that will be shown will be the New York one-step, variations of the popular fox trot and the Duprae-Gavotte.

Dies Trying to Save Life of Child; Flung Beneath Wheels of Car

President of Teamsters' Union, Prominent in Labor Movement and Loved By Hundreds

Leslie Holsclaw is dead.

He flung himself to certain death in a desperate, splendid attempt to save the life of a little girl.

Shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon Holsclaw was driving the big auto truck of Mrs. F. E. Adams north near Twenty-first and West streets, Oakland. Thirteen-year-old Helen Andrade, daughter of a retired milk dealer of 2618 Myrtle street, with her little sister, started to cross the street.

At the same time an electric car approached at high speed. Holsclaw saw the car and the child. With no thought for himself, he swerved the truck to avoid her and the car crashed into the truck. He was flung under the front wheels of the car. The impact swung the automobile around and thrust the child, whom he had sacrificed his life to save, underneath the rear wheels of the electric. Both bodies were crushed beyond recognition. The combined efforts of the fire department and the police for an hour were necessary to remove them.

The small sister of the child victim and a crowd of men and women saw the tragedy. The bodies were removed to the Taylor undertaking parlors, near by.

Holsclaw was a man among men. More deeply than they can express, his hundreds of friends mourn his loss.

For two years he had been president of the Teamsters' Union. The members loved him for his sterling manhood, his wonderful good nature, the quality in him that became uppermost when he had to choose between his own life and that of a little child.

Last night the Building Trades Council met. No business was done. Already the delegates had heard of the tragedy. As a tribute to him, they rose and stood silent. It was the saddest meeting ever held by the council.

Holsclaw lived in Richmond for ten years. He was in the forefront of the labor movement, ready always to make sacrifices for his fellows. In his death the organized workers have suffered a great loss, a loss softened but a little by the realization of the nobility with which he met death.

He is survived by his widow, two brothers, both formerly Richmond residents, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. L. A. Peters, and his mother.

A special meeting will be held by the Teamsters' Union this evening in the Labor Temple. Every member is expected to attend.

Holsclaw was a native of Kentucky and a member of Eclipse Lodge of Odd Fellows.

KNOTT TO TAKE UP FIGHT FOR NEW HIGHWAY

Supervisor Zeb Knott is preparing to make a fight for the building of the state highway from the county line, along San Pablo avenue to the town of San Pablo, which was promised to this section of the county, and which has been held because of the refusal of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminals R. R. to move its tracks from the east side of the street to the center, so that the paved section could be built along the eastern half. Knott proposes to take the matter up with the Railroad Commission.

Warren McBryde, former supervisor, tried to get the work done while he was in office without result.

TAKES CASE TO HIGHER COURT

Attorney J. B. Rodgers, attorney for the plaintiff in the redlight abatement case, recently tried in Martinez and which ended in a hung jury, has taken the case to the Superior Court.

ACCIDENT VICTIM SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

Little Iola Rhoades, daughter of Frank Rhoades, the tailor, who was seriously injured in a runaway accident in San Anselmo, was reported to be slightly improved yesterday afternoon. Her condition is still critical.

DOOLING WILL PLACED ON FILE

Yesterday morning the last will and testament of the late Johanna Dooling was placed on file with the county clerk along with the petition of Mary Agnes Herring, her daughter, for appointment as executrix.

The estate is worth $25,000 and consists of Oakland and Richmond real estate. The first will was made in May of 1909, but several changes were made in it on May 12, 1915. These were caused by property deals which the late widow made during the six years intervening.

The heirs are Thomas Dooling, John J. Dooling, Esther Dooling Sarsfield, Mary Agnes Herring, Kate Bernardo Hopkins and the latter's two children, Vepus and James.

C.W.A. PRESIDENT ARRIVES SUNDAY

R. B. Kittredge, president and general manager of the California Wine Association, will arrive in San Francisco Sunday. With his arrival the controversy between the dividend and non-dividend stockholders will be fought out.

The faction headed by Attorney Pillsbury charges that the overhead expense in the management of the plant is too large.

CHESTER HARSHNER IS GIVEN FREEDOM

THEY KILL BECKER THIS MORNING

As you read this, Charles Becker, former police lieutenant of New York, is awaiting with horrible dread the coming of the guards who will lead him to the death chair.

Becker is probably guilty of instigating a murder. Herman Rosenthal, gambler, died at the hands of gunmen directed by Becker to get Rosenthal out of the way. But the murdering of Becker by the State will not bring back Rosenthal's life; the second wrong will not right the first.

And what ever we may think of Becker's life, we cannot but deeply respect a man who can say as he faces certain death, after a terribly long fight to save himself:

"Well, I'll die like a man anyhow!"

THE JITNEY.

Those who hear the best and the worst about the jitney bus, and the worst is being told without hesitation under the inspiration of corporations more or less jealous of the integrity of so-called vested rights, may be interested in the result of some observations made by the district attorney of the District of Columbia, in New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Kansas City and St. Louis. In his opinion, we are told, the jitney has come to stay. This being the case, he does not favor the further extension of the trackage of the local street railway company into downtown Washington. Furthermore, he holds that the jitney strikes directly at the short-haul revenues of street railways, that it has not produced serious traffic congestion in any city, and that if it is to be operated at a profit it must be subjected to a minimum of restrictions. It is remarkable how quickly the jitney passes out of humorous and into serious discussion when it is viewed with regard simply to its economic possibilities.

STRAIGHT TALK.

WORKINGMEN OF RICHMOND:

I wish to call to your remembrance an evening not so very long ago when the working people of this city filled the central streets to voice their indignation at the anti-picketing ordinance that had been passed by our city council. That ordinance was seen to be a preliminary movement that would clear the way for an attack on union hours and wages. No small part of the indignation then expressed grew out of the fact that neither of the Richmond papers would present the workers' side.

The obnoxious ordinance was drowned the next day under a flood of workingmen's votes, and so strong did we feel the need of a paper that would voice the workers' cause, steps were taken to establish a workers' paper here, and the Daily News resulted.

Was not the lesson of Stockton enough to prove the intentions of the rulers? Are the Richmond wage earners so well fixed that a campaign to reduce wages and lengthen hours could be treated lightly?

Labor's recent battles in Colorado, Michigan, West Virginia, Massachusetts, New York, to mention but a few of them, show that the one thing Big Business is determined to end is the union, that is of value to the worker.

The unions of Richmond are fortified as perhaps in no other town in the nation.

The Daily News is a Wage Insurance. That paper is the first thing that the powers of oppression would think of in preparing to repeat here their oft tried plan of forcing Labor to yield them larger profits. They know what such a paper ought to do. They understand its value in labor "trouble." There is every reason to think that without the Daily News the forcing down of wages here would already be well under way.

Richmond is doubtless the most thoroughly unionized town on the coast. With their daily paper the way is clear for them to go ahead and maintain their rights. The city ordinances can be drafted in their favor. The city revenues can be used for parks, baths, playgrounds and public improvement. Our city can employ its own citizens instead of allowing contractors, non-resident and resident, to pay our money to floaters. If the working people of Richmond have any idea of being an active, virile force in the city's affairs, the very first thing they must do is to see that the Daily News, the only paper in Richmond that stands for them, is liberally supported.

MADAM--

These Are the Stamps You Should Save

The only kind that takes 500 to fill a book. All others require 1000 stamps. It takes you just half as long to fill an American Book.

American stamps gives you more than any other profit sharing plan in existence. Each book of 500 stamps is exchangeable for articles ranging in value from $2.50 to $5. 1000 American stamps, or 2 books, gives you articles worth from $5 to $10.

A comparison with other stamps will quickly convince any thrifty housewife that it is her duty to save ONLY AMERICAN STAMPS.

INSIST ON AMERICAN! ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTE!—THERE ARE NONE "JUST AS GOOD."

ELECTION OFFICER LAW GOES INTO EFFECT SOON

The new state law which authorizes the county clerk to advertise 60 days prior to elections for election officers to serve goes into effect in one week and means that all who receive pay for handling elections must not only send in their written applications, but that they must state their age, occupation, residence, experience if any, as election officer and also their references. The law will be used for the first time on October 26, when the non-partisan law is voted upon.

YEP SOME GAME ON SUNDAY

The short distance, and the fact that Joe McNamara has injected such a wealth of new life in his "team" has aroused the interest in Sunday's baseball excursion, so that from present appearances the big migration promises to be the largest yet. There will be plenty of music, as a large slice of the Richmond Concert Band will accompany the special train.

Joe McNamara stated yesterday that he was not yet through with improvements for his team, and that if he decided that there were any more weak spots in his aggregation that he would hire the remainder of the unattached Coast League players for the occasion.

* * *

A LITTLE STORY ABOUT JOE PURDY.

The Vallejo Chronicle carried a story of how Joe Purdy, whom local boxing fans will remember as the lad that fought Jack Allbright at the Eighth-street arena several fights ago, having indulged in a runout powder on the fight that he is scheduled for in the boxing show at Fairfield, Solano county, on Saturday evening.

What ails Purdy is that his boxing instructor, Lee Williams of this city, grew a little too realistic in demonstrating the K. O. punch a few evenings ago, and as a result Purdy has a jaw that promises to remain locked for a few days.

Purdy is fighting under the nom-de-plume of Danny Snider of Richmond.

* * *

A MARTINEZ AND VALLEJO SERIES ALL ARRANGED, BUT MARTINEZ.

Manager Tony Blanco of the Vallejo squad of ball players is accusing Joe McNamara of the Martinez Colts of frigid feet. Twice has Blanco thrown down the gauntlet, and twice has McNamara averted his phiz.

Since Richmond has put both Vallejo and Martinez in the same class by goodly drubbings, Blanco is more than ever anxious to arrange a series. Such a series would surely draw well in both towns.

* * *

VALLEJO ATHLETES VS. STANLEY GIANTS.

The muchly augmented sport page of the Vallejo Tribune tells of Sunday's game between the dark hued Stanley Giants and the equally colored Vallejo Athletics. There is an other colored game at the Navy Yard town Sunday, also.

* * *

HO, HO. COMPETITION. LOOK OUT, BERT.

A number of Americans of Santa Rosa have completed plans for the financing of a semi-pro ball team for the remainder of this season. The intense rivalry that exists between Santa Rosa and the outlying town of Sebastopol is too strong to permit the Santa Rosans to put a weak team in the field, even if they have to mortgage their homes.

And so we remark again, "Look out, Bert Delmas."

* * *

MONKEY SEE, MONKEY DO.

As the Richmond-Petaluma series approaches, Denny Hensley of the Sage Hens has began disposing of some of his decrepit and croup-infected old roosters and is getting some new and talented spring chickens for his feathered seraglio. Andrade and Brown have been given the tinny jingle, and Lagorio, who local fans will remember as a likely artist has been billed for center. Oh, well.

PETE BUZUKOS, CHAMPION OF ????, BEATS STEVE ONETO IN DISGRACEFUL EXHIBITION

A handful of spectators watched Pete Buzukos, the so-called welterweight wrestling champion, easily defeat Steve Oneto of San Francisco last night at Floyd's Eighth street arena. Buzukos secured the first fall in 16 minutes with a hammerlock and a head scissors hold. With the same hold Buzukos threw Oneto the second time in just eight minutes. The other matches scheduled were not held owing to the small crowd.

Little more can be said of the affair, which was a disgraceful exhibition and did not help to bring the sport of wrestling out of the bad repute which it is in with the Richmond fans. Buzukos styles himself the welterweight champion, of what he does not say, probably of the Acropolis Coffee Club, or the Spanish Athletic Society. Buzukos is indeed a champ at throwing that venerable and well known bull.

Mr. Morgan—Jim Morgan of Oakland—was on hand last night and he enlightened us somewhat upon the wrestling situation. Morgan has beaten both Buzukos and Oneto and also beat Young Santel, or Theophilus, who defeated Buzukos so easily in San Francisco recently. Morgan held the national amateur title before he entered the professional ranks, which was when he wrestled Buzukos in Oakland and threw him in a minute and a half. We are not taking Morgn's word for this; he has the newspaper clippings to show it.

Morgan challenged Buzukos last night before the match and Buzukos afterward accepted it. A number of fans, prominent among whom were Raymond Richmond, Al Imbach, Frankie Smith and Welcome Berry, alias Kid Smiley, offered to put up a purse for Buzukos and Morgan to try conclusions then and there. Buzukos refused, however, as he was tired from his match with Oneto, but if these boys could be brought together here it would be a match that would draw.

ELKS ARE HITTING THE BALL

With the average of the Elk batters soaring at .341 and Cutey Cunningham smashing it around the .368 mark, the local team undoubtedly is the hardest hitting team in the bushes, and what's more, show us a team in the big brush that is composed of such hitting fools. Of course Richmond has had some easy picking with some of the slow teams that parade around the bay as fast semi-pro teams (and have to be convinced that they are not)—but have not Petaluma and Sebastopol played the same teams, and easier ones, and the batting average of those teams are less than the .300 mark.

One of the heart-warming features of the list is the fine showing of our latest acquisition, "Ootsie" Schinkel, who tops the list with .571, although he has only been up seven times. More strength and a long life to you, "Oots". Gordon and Devereaux come next among the "once-in-a-whiles."

"Foxy Grandpa" Daniels, the locals' fastest and most daring—we could say, most too daring—base-runner leads in run getting, having amassed 21. Christensen and Cunningham tie for second with 19 per each.

Here it all is. Thank Cornelius McGillicuddy O'Hair.

COAST LEAGUE

The fins of the Seals were in fine condition yesterday, for twice they escaped the Oaken cudgel of the Rowdies. The Angels only won one game, probably because that is all they played. Oh, Salts, where is thy sting, and wherein lies the appropriateness of your name! The Beavers get a close scratch by the Tigers.
